United States District Court Judge
Southern District of New York
300 Quarropas Street
White Plains, New York 10601

Re: U.S. x rel. Integra Med. Analytics LLC v. Isaac Laufer et al.;
Case No. 7:17-CIV-09424 (CS)

Dear Judge Seibel:

With the consent of all parties, Defendants respectfully request a seven-day extension of the deadline for filing Defendants' replies in support of their motions to dismiss. This is Defendants' first request for an extension for this reply briefing.

Defendants previously asked for a seven-day extension to file their opening briefs in support of their motions to dismiss in order to allow the eleven facility defendants time to coordinate and consolidate their arguments into a single, joint brief. [Doc. 80.] The Court granted that motion and set a briefing schedule for Defendants' motions to dismiss, making opening briefs due on October 28, 2021, the Government's opposition due on December 9, 2021, and Defendants' replies due on December 23, 2021. [Doc. 81.] On October 28, 2021, the eleven facility defendants served one consolidated opening brief and each of the other three defendants served separate opening briefs. The Government then requested and was granted an extension of time to serve its omnibus opposition in order to allow the parties time to explore mediation, and the Court amended the schedule to make the Government's opposition due on January 28, 2022, and the Defendants' replies due on February 11, 2022. [Doc. 86.] The Government served its 49-page omnibus opposition brief on January 28, 2022.

In the interest of judicial economy, the eleven facility defendants again intend to coordinate and jointly file one reply brief. Given the Government's lengthy omnibus opposition and the time needed for the eleven facility defendants to coordinate briefing among numerous defense counsel, the Defendants respectfully request one additional week—until February 18, 2022—to file their reply briefs. We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ J. Bradley Robertson
